AND NOW, this 12th day of October, 2020, upon consideration of Defendant Marlon Graham's pro se Motion to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct a Sentence By a Person in Federal Custody Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, and the government's response in opposition, and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum, it is ORDERED:

- Graham's Motion to Vacate, Set Aside or Correct a Sentence (Document 660) is DENIED;
- Graham's Motion for Default Judgment (Document 737) is DENIED;¹
- A certificate of appealability shall not issue; and
- The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to mark the above-captioned civil case CLOSED.

BY THE COURT:

Juan R. Sánchez, C.J.

¹ In August 2019, Graham filed a motion for default because the government had not responded to his motion to vacate. However, before Graham filed this motion, the Court set a new deadline for the government's response. Because the government filed its response before that deadline, the Court denies Graham's motion for default.
